

CHARITON COURIER,

A. C. VANDIVER & SON, Proprietors

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Entered at the postoffice at Keytesville, Mo., as second-class mail matter.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1889.

The orphan asylum at Augusta, Ga., burned Sunday; loss $100,000. All the children were saved.

PETITIONS in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick are assuming vast proportions, and she hopes to be saved from the gallows.

'Twas a base ball pitcher who, by his skill in curving dynamite bombs, quelled the Honolulu uprising of July 30th.

THAT Texas Tascott turns out, like all the others, a case of mistaken identity. This one is a Kansas man; his name is Dolph and he formerly lived at Emporia.

Dr. HAMMOND says that the so called elixir of life was not so named by either himself or Dr. Brown-Sequard and that it is simply recommended as a tonic and will not prolong life.

EX-GOVERNOR CHARLES FOSTER, of Ohio, a member of the Sioux commission, says that the lands to be opened are not generally good for agricultural purposes, though there is plenty of good grazing grounds.

EXPRESS MESSENGER GORHAM was found dead in his car with a bullet hole through his head and a revolver near his side when a Southern Pacific train pulled into Rosenberg, Texas, Sunday. It is believed that he accidentally shot himself.

The public debt statement August 1, 1888, showed a decrease of $4,137,299. August 1, 1889, it showed an increase of $1,317,312. In 1888 a Democratic administration conducted the affairs of the government. Now the Republicans are in power.

MRS. MARRICK, the American woman tried and convicted in England for poisoning her husband, has been sentenced to hang. Mrs. Maybrick is the daughter of a Mobile banker. A paramour figured in the tragedy which was committed by the woman at Liverpool, England.

D. A. WHIEFIELD, one of the two men who attempted to hold up a train near Newport, Arkansas, last Saturday, has been captured. He says his partner was Mike Mowder. A colored porter named Andy Crittenden, was killed and the baggage-master, J. E. Garrits, was wounded in the side.

A RUMOR has been current to the effect that a new Democratic paper is to be started in Washington in advocacy of William C. Whitney for president in 1892. Mr. Whitney denies the correctness of the statement, and says: "The item is absurd on its face, and I object to being thought capable of such nonsense."

THE president's latest fad is to have an army officer detailed for special duty to attend him whenever he leaves Washington. It is not the duty of the officer to guard the president, but simply to display his brass buttons and act as a sort of herald and attendant. The grandson of his grandfather is not much of a believer in Jeffersonian simplicity.

PROF. GEO. ROOT, of Canton, Mo., the great weather prophet, predicts the most destructive storm the 15th day of September that has ever been known in America. We hope that the professor is only joking, but if he is really in earnest we will send out to Kansas and borrow a cyclone cellar, in order that we may be prepared for the approaching storm.

We regret that Jesse James has been ruthlessly torn from the tomb and is reported to be out West alive and well. Jesse's remains were interred under his mother's window, and it must be indeed harrowing to his maternal ancestor, as well as to his wife, to have the ex-bandid resurrected and connected with almost every train robbery that occurs. Such nonsense is ludicrous in the extreme and it is almost time that the rattling, by some of the "old gang," of Jesse James' dry bones should cease.

THE ex-Confederate association of Missouri will meet this year at Higginsville, Lafayette county, on August 27th and 28th. Col. Robert McCulloch, the president, and the local committees are doing all in their power to make the occasion a grand success. Tents and provisions will be provided on the ground for the encampment, so that expenses there will be very light. Reduced rates have been obtained on all the railroads, persons paying full fare going and either one-third or no fare returning. Col. Hiram Bledsoe, will be the chief marshal. Every ex-Confederate soldier in Missouri is urged to attend. The grand army posts of the vicinity will be present. It is hoped that the reunion will be the largest one ever held in Missouri.

The sale of Governor Francis' elegant residence property on Vandeventer avenue, St. Louis, is thought by some to be significant. The property brought $45,000, and the knowledge one claim that the governor will not need a home in St. Louis until after his term in the United States senate. We hardly think, however, that Mr. Francis will be able to deflect Missouri's silver-tongued orator, Senator George G. Vest, in 1890, although he may secure the coveted prize by stepping into Senator Cockrell's shoes in 1894.

At Chapman, Kansas, Sunday, a wholesale riot occurred, resulting from the attempt of Marshal Arnold to arrest eight men, quarrelsome from drink. They had a keg of beer and about church time came on the streets assaulting respectable citizens. Forty or fifty persons took a hand in the affair and several were badly injured. The whole party, after hard work, were arrested under the state laws. Most of them are farmers and men of good standing. There is much excitement over the matter. Prohibition, it would seem from the above, does not prohibit.

THE new law with regard to fees gives the sheriff mileage for distances traveled over five miles, at rate of 5 cents per mile each way, said mileage to be allowed for one witness only in each case. Heretofore the sheriff has not been allowed mileage. In criminal cases the sheriff gets $4 per day for attending trial instead of $3 as heretofore. For attending court the sheriff, and not to exceed two deputies, may get $2 per day. Heretofore the sheriff was allowed a $2 fee for attending court. The new law makes the sheriff's office pay considerably better. The same law cuts the circuit clerk down to 10 cents per hundred words for making transcripts instead of 15 cents as heretofore.

It has been decided by Secretary Noble that his little board of examination to whitewash Tanner will not report until the secretary returns from his vacation. This will be about three weeks. The "commission" has finished taking evidence and is now engaged mixing up the whitewash. Tanner is in great glee, and looks upon the "commission" as having done up Noble instead of himself. The prospect of being made commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and of Noble's being kicked upstairs to the supreme bench, of Clarkson's going to the interior department, and finally of the corporal having his own way about everything has made him supremely happy.

MISSOURI produces more zinc than any other state in the Union; has the largest lead mine in the world; possesses unlimited supplies of iron ore; millions of acres of the finest timber in America, and successfully raises the greatest variety of agricultural products. Besides these Missouri has the third manufacturing city in the United States on one border and a growing wonder in Kansas City on the other. Take it all in all this state is growing faster to day than any other, and we may classically, truthfully and metaphorically say, that there is no flies on Missouri. Not a fly. Nor do our people intend that there shall be any. Come to Missouri. Come to Chariton county. Come to Keytesville by the first of October and take a ride on our street railway, get married to one of our pretty girls, subscribe for the Courier, read it and be as happy as the day is long.

Killed by the Cars.
News reached this city last night that a sad accident had occurred near Macon City, in which Mrs. Jno. Shea had lost her life. She had been to Macon City, and was returning to her home, a short distance in the country, walking along the Wabash railroad track. Just at the curve in the track, within the limits of the city, she was struck by the south-bound freight train and literally ground to pieces beneath the wheels. Mrs. Shea was the mother of eleven children, one of whom, Miss Julia Shea, has lived in this city with the family of Mr. D. S. Forney, for the past fifteen years. A son, Mr. Humphrey Shea, also works in this city. The remains of Mrs. Shea were brought to this city to-day and buried in St. Mary's cemetery.—Mercury-Republican.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Sixty-one teachers were enrolled at the institute up to noon yesterday.
Owen & Courtney are putting in a new mill dam to fill the place of the one washed out last spring.

N. Gebhardt, of Chariton township, made us an appreciated visit yesterday.

Mrs. Bonner, of St. Louis, who is the guest of Mrs. J. P. Tippet, of this place, and Miss Mollie Grinstead, of this city, are both ill.

Marriage Licenses.

Richard Tillotson and Miss Belle Lightfoot; H. S. Bruce and Miss Luella Kendrick.

Capt. Vance, of near Shannondale, Dr. N. D. Stephenson and Isaac Huddle, of Clark township, and Geo. Hermann, of Salisbury, were at the capital yesterday.

MARRIED:—In the probate judge's office at the court-house on Thursday, Aug. 8, 1889, Mr. Richard Tillotson and Miss Belle Lightfoot, Judge H. C. Minter sealing the plighted vows.

We are informed by Walter Dougherty that Ollie Coleman, of Salisbury, was over Sunday evening. Lee Winn, of Salisbury, was also smiling on one of Keytesville's coming belles the same evening.

M. G. Holcomb united with the Baptist Church by confession of faith Sunday morning, and received the ordinance of baptism in the mill pond at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Courier extends Mr. Holcomb the right hand of fellowship, and trusts that he may make a useful and zealous worker in the Christian cause in which he has enlisted.

Robinson and Dodge, of the Keytesville Black Stockings, went to Kirksville Wednesday night to assist the Chillicothe team in two games against Kirksville. The Chillicothes won Thursday by a score of 8 to 7, but Friday the Kirksvilles were victorious to the tune of 6 to 2. Robinson and Dodge put up excellent battery work in both games. LaDew, of the Mexico Browns, was Kirksville's twirler in both Thursday's and Friday's games.

Our good friend, "Uncle Jack" Dougherty, of Muscle Fork, was married Sunday to Mrs. Mary Jane Bradberry, of Kansas City, at Kansas City. Mrs. Bradberry is a sister to Jas. M. Job, of near this place. "Uncle Jack" and his spouse passed through Keytesville the first of the week en route for the bridegroom's home. We join their friends in best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

The Sturgeon Leader localizes thusly: The Keytesville boys were beaten by the Moberly nine last week. We are informed that the management was the cause of their defeat.
Who informed you Brother Gray, Or will you give the snap away? He who told you is a liar—An unworthy son of a noble sire.
There is blood on the moon, and the message of the Black Stockings is going up to mop Luna with the man who lied on him.

Joseph A. Howell, recently sentenced by Judge Burgess at Brookfield to be hanged November 18th, was the second sentence of death that Judge Burgess has ever passed. John Cropp, a negro who was hung here on the 14th of June, 1889, before the first Cropp, it will be remembered, was sentenced to death for the murder of Noah Forrest, near Forrest Green. Howell is the first criminal ever convicted of murder in the first degree in Linn county.

Pickpockets and thieves got in their work at the G. A. R. encampment at Kirksville last week. A Mrs. Pratt had $30 stolen from her pocket; the house of Capt. O. E. Gates was entered and some jewelry belonging to members of the family and a Miss Ada Keel, was taken; Judge C. Ownby was robbed of $29; an entrance was effected to Porter R. Smith's residence, but nothing was missed. Money was hidden in two places in the house but the thieves failed to find it. The miscreants have not been captured.

'Tis with a sad heart that we chronicle the death of Mr. Albert G. Brooks, of near Westville, which occurred on Wednesday of last week. His remains were interred in the family graveyard near Chranville. He was a good man and will be missed in the community in which he lived, while in his death his family realize a loss that can not be filled. May he who is the father of the fatherless and the husband of the widow be their comforter.

Some excitement was created on our streets Tuesday afternoon by a report that a cow was mired in the main bridge, just above the mill. Capt. J. C. Crawley, a mixed company (white and black), and proceeded to the rescue. Armed with ropes and poles the company marched boldly over the hill, and arrived at the scene of action without mishap of any kind. Capt. Crawley, stripped, a la Sullivan, and he and Lieut. Cousins soon had the mud cleared from the cows legs and a rope around her horns, when the company were brought into action by Corporal T. J. Martin and old Bossy was on terra firma before she knew it, not but considerably short on wind. The animal belonged to Grading commenced on our street car railway Monday. Several generous-hearted farmers have donated work with their teams, which materially aids in lessening the expense of grading. The iron has already arrived, and the ties will be placed as soon as the grade is completed. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. It will be the aim of the management to have the line in running order by October 1st. A dry goods syndicate, which will carry the largest stock of goods in Chariton county, will be next in order. Come to Keytesville.

A young lady innocently asked a Courier reporter what the Huntsville Mascots were going to do with the nest of goose eggs presented them by the Keytesville Black Stockings. We don't know, but presume the Huntsville boys will endeavor to "hatch" some runs out of them the next time they cross bats with the Keytesville team.—KEYTESVILLE COURIER.

The Courier's idea is a good one, but it takes 15 to make a good setting, and the Black Stockings will have to send down the half dozen goose eggs presented them at Salisbury by the Moberly Browns, before the setting process is begun. Pack them carefully and send them down, Charlie, and when they hatch we'll divide with the Black Stockings.—Huntsville Herald.

Brother Balthus, the half dozen eggs have been expressed to the Mascots, C. O. D., $100, and when the Black Stockings get returns, they can figure about even on the Keytesville-Moberly game played at Salisbury.

The Brunswick and Keytesville second nines crossed bats here on Friday evening last and put up one of the best and most interesting ball games ever played on the Keytesville grounds. It required twelve innings to settle which team was entitled to wear the belt, which was awarded to Keytesville by a score of 10 to 9. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 7 to 7. In the tenth and eleventh each club was retired with a goose egg, but in the twelfth Brunswick scored two and Keytesville three runs. White and Dougherty did the battery work for Keytesville and Strub and Dodge for Brunswick. Dougherty struck out fourteen and Dodge thirteen. Brunswick was whitewashed seven and Keytesville six times. Only two of the Keytesville boys were out when the winning run was scored by Rucker.

Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12—
Keytesville 9 3 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 3—10
Brunswick 2 0 2 0 0 0 1 2 0 0 4—10

E. B. Ward, who got into a shooting scrape with City Marshal Hancock here some time last winter, and who would have doubtless killed Hancock had the shot-gun in Ward's hands not been jammed, and who made good his escape the night of the "scrap," arrived here on the 11 o'clock train on Thursday of last week. Shortly after his reaching Keytesville Sheriff Anderson heard of his being here and at once sent Deputy Sheriff Brockman to arrest Ward, who was at his mother's, Mrs. M. A. Ward's in the south part of town. Frank Carmon, who was at Mrs. Ward's at the time, saw Brockman enter the gate and remarked: "There comes the deputy sheriff." Eber Ward lost no time in getting out of the back door and making his way to a field of corn near by, his heels only saying his arrest. Sheriff Anderson kept vigil at the depot Thursday night, and Ward did not board any of the trains that passed Keytesville station that night. Verily the way of the transgressor is full of heel dust. Sheriff Anderson and deputies are a terror to the evildoer.

In Memoriam.

Dora, youngest daughter of Richard G. Oldham, died last Friday morning, Aug. 9, 1889, being a victim of an acute attack of flux, and after ten days' of untold suffering was banded down to her grasp in peace. She was born Sept. 20, 1874 and was a studious and attentive Sunday-school pupil. Dora was always a sunbeam to those she met, kind, loving and sympathetic. Even the doves sang forth their mournful cry on the event of her death, which was particularly noticed by all those present.

"Sister Dora, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as a summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.
Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in the grave so low, Thou no more wilt join our number, Thou no more our songs shalt know.
Dearest sister, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.
Each cooing dove and sighing bough, That made thy mourn so blest to thee, Doth mourn thy death as we do now, Our sister, with him of Galilee.
Yet, again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life has fled, Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed."
A FRIEND.

From the Fore.

Shannondale has organized a base ball club.

Health good with the exception of a few cases of flux.

Albert Rich, of Forrest Green, was in the neighborhood last week.

Rev. W. H. Roper filled his regular appointment at Ashbury Sunday.

W. H. Taylor, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Carroll

A protracted meeting, is being conducted at the old Union church, south of Salisbury, this week.

There will be a grand picnic at Shannondale Saturday. Everybody is invited to attend and have a good time.

Miss Jessie Ingledue, who has been visiting in the Forks for some weeks, has returned to her home in Chillicothe.

"Moonlight" are all the go. One at W. H. Patterson's Thursday night, and another at P. R. O'Bryan's Friday night.

T. P. Wood has a new road cart, and we hear that his mother had to go out to the barn and persuade him to go to bed. How is it Theodore?

Harvesting and threshing is about over, and the "busy season" is at an end for a time, aside from the attention that tobacco and fall plowing will require.

NOW-AND-THEN.

SALISBURY DEPARTMENT.
BY A. W. JOHNSON.

Mr. Johnson is authorized to receive and accept Subscriptions, and any Advertisements handed to him will receive our prompt attention.

The new bricks will soon be completed and occupied.

Bertie Neal is improving rapidly and will soon be well.

The Glasgow branch train ran over a couple of cows this week.

Dick Elliott, of Marshall, came over to see his sick mother last week.

Dr. Scroggin will move to Oregon as soon as he can close up his business here.

Judge Botts still lies in a helpless condition, sometimes a little better and then worse, but with no permanent improvement.

R. E. Warren, a phrenologist, is lecturing at the opera house on bumpology, and his lectures are instructive and amusing.

Eld. Perkins is conducting a very interesting series of meetings at Union church, near this place. A number of persons have joined.

W. S. Stockwell is moving into his new and commodious residence in College Place addition. J. B. Ellington will follow in a few days.

Geo. N. Burrus and the writer placed their heads in the hands of a phrenologist for public examination Monday night, and now their think tanks are known and read of all men. They'll not do it again.

W. A. Snell has sold his interest in the lumber yard and also his beautiful residence in College addition to Joseph Allen, esq., formerly of Randolph county, but now of Montana territory. We are sorry that Mr. Snell is to leave us, but console ourselves with the fact that his place will be filled by another good man. Mr. Snell will return to Monroe county, whence he came, and help to swell that county's already beastly Democratic majority.

While on their way home from this place Saturday evening, John Green, son of Gilbert Green, and Lewis Ray got into a difficulty which resulted in Green's receiving a pistol ball in his right arm. As stated to us by young Green's father, it seems that his son was riding along the road, near the residence of C. C. Mason, when he was overtaken by Ray, also on horseback, who, without warning, made an assault on him with a club. Green warded off the blows and jumped off his horse. Ray also dismounted and the two engaged in a fight with fists. Green soon proved too much for Ray, when the latter drew a pistol and fired, the ball taking effect in Green's right arm, near the shoulder, from which it was afterwards removed by Drs. Banning and Grinstead. Immediately after the shooting some other parties came up, when Ray got on his horse and left. He was arrested during the night and gave bond for his appearance before Justice Newbold, on Saturday next, when his preliminary examination will be held. Young Green received only a flesh wound and is getting along all right. We do not know the origin of the difficulty, but learn that a grudge had existed between them for some time.

Order of Publication.

State of Missouri, county of Chariton, ss. In the circuit court of Chariton county, Aug. 12th, 1889, in vacation. Cornelia W. Delaney, plaintiff, vs. Patrick J. Delaney, defendant.

At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorneys and files her petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant is not a resident of the State of Missouri; Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court the object and general nature of which is to obtain in this court a judgment and decree, divorcing her from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and entered into with the defendant herein, and that unless the said Patrick J. Delaney be and appear at this court, at the next term, thereof, to be begun and hold on at the Court house in the city of Keytesville, in said county, on the 21st day of October next, and on or before the sixth day of said term, if the term shall so long continue—and if not, then on or before the last day of said term—answer or plead to the petition, he said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof, be published, according to law, in the CHARITON COURIER, a weekly newspaper, published in Chariton county, Missouri, JAMES A. EGAN, Circuit Clerk.

A true copy from the record. Witness my hand and the seal of the circuit court of Chariton county, this 12th day of August, 1889.
